Description

This kit allows you to either field a Barking Dog or a Six Shooter.
The Six Shooter is equipped with six recoiless guns in order to deal with enemy armor and there 's little that can survive if it decides to unleash a full salvo of them at a single target.
The Barking Dog has one of the largest phasers available, able to melt infantry and vehicles alike and with such strength that it ignores whatever cover they thought they'd use against it.

Miniatures come pre-assembled, primed and unpainted. (but ready to play!)
