Description
Legion: Nephilim Bolt Thrower

Contains one unassembled unpainted plastic model.

Nephilim stand apart from other warbeasts of Everblight's legion in their ability to wield weapons while maintaining all the advantages of beasts born of the dragon's blood. Their draconic strength allows nephilim bolt throwers to use artillery-style ballistae as hand-held weapons. Each bolt delivers tremendous stopping power against approaching foes before the bolt throwers carve up survivors with their heavy bow blades.
